National Cricket Carnival

Adelaide South Australia – January 2015

The eighth National Cricket Carnival was played in the beautiful city of Adelaide involving six teams from across Australia. A cloudy and slightly rainy first day was followed by the remaining three days of clear skies and mild weather allowed all matches to be played. Matches were played at Adelaide University Cricket Clubs grounds, Adelaide High School and Kensington Oval at Pembroke School, the former club ground of Don Bradman..

Teams were split into two groups. New South Wales with victories against Victoria and Western Australia together with South Australia with victories against Industry and Queensland, played in the final. New South Wales won in a closely contested match played at the delightful Kensington Oval are now the National Champions and hold the 'Chemists Interstate Challenge Cricket Shield' the oldest sporting trophy in Australia Pharmacy.

From Newcastle pharmacist Nathan Blackmore was named 'Batsman of the Carnival' and pharmacy student Michael, Holt was 'Bowler of the Carnival'

An excellent 'Welcome' BBQ was held in the long room of the Adelaide University Cricket Club and the Friday night Trophy presentation dinner with over 100 present was held at the recently refurbished and outstanding Adelaide Oval. Former Test player Ashley Mallet was the guest speaker presenting the trophies
